

"I have always loved working with Room to Grow; however, it has become even more meaningful for me since I recently became a parent. I truly understand the phrase "it takes a village" now. I am blessed to have my own village and resources to care for my son. I am passionate about contributing to the Room to Grow village to help support families during the most challenging, vulnerable, rewarding, and exciting times in their lives."

Room to Grow's Young Professionals Council! Our diverse members draw on their unique professional skills and talents while engaging with Room to Grow through any of the following: volunteering, fundraising, hosting a collection drive, attending an event, or offering thought partnership to support our work. Our members work in a variety of fields, including finance, arts, media, and diplomacy, and we welcome everyone from recent grads to new parents to join.

AS A MEMBER OF THE YPC, YOU WILL

- Meet new people
- Build professional connections
- Volunteer with Room to Grow
- Learn about the early childhood field, nonprofit, health equity, issues impacting families in your community, and more!
- Get a closer look at Room to Grow's program through organization updates
